

Ultimate Story Of Love [C, 76 bpm, 6/8]

[HC Original] by Christina Roberts

Intro, V1, C, V2, C, V3, C, C

INTRO

|C| |G| |Am| |F| |C| |G| |Am| |F| |F|

VERSE 1

C G Am F
Fairy tales of handsome princes white horses and happy endings
C G Dm C/E G
Pretty dresses and crowns of diamonds are in the stories we've heard
C G Am F
So we look for enchanted romance beyond the pages we find there's no chance
C G Dm C/E G
Of ever after and perfect endings still we search for our king
F Am C G
There's one story of love that's more than a fable there's a

CHORUS

C F G Csus C
Crown of thorns instead of roses poured out blood instead of wine
Am G F Am G
Stretched out hands but not to dance it's the ultimate story of love
F Am Gsus G
A king who died for us

VERSE 2

Now this King was not so fetching rode on a burro and near His ending He had
A torn garment and a crown of thistles and was hung on a tree
Not what we look for in a savior but turn the pages and three days later
An empty tomb and a deep impression where His body was laid
I have found my king and here is His story He had

CHORUS

VERSE 3

C G Am F
Now this story is not completed He's coming back soon undefeated
C G Am F
On His white horse with His army clothed in linen and crowned with glory
C G Dm7 C/E G
With a loud shout He will gather His bride for the feast
F Am C G
We will praise our King in this eternal story now

CHORUS (repeat and tag "It's the ultimate story of love twice")