

SONG: LORD YOU REIGN
ALBUM: FREE
ARTIST: HOPE CREATIVE

VERSE 1

It fades away, all the things that we see
They fade away, they don't matter anymore
What's left to say, what I own is not my own

CHORUS

We give it all to you,
We lay our lives down before You
For the glory of Your name, and the greatness of Your fame
Lord You reign, Lord You reign

VERSE 2

It comes and goes, this life that we know
It comes and goes, but You remain
This we know, this home is not my home

CHORUS

BRIDGE

Though the mountains shake and thunders roar, I will not fear
And when the storms consume my mind I know you are near
My soul is weak, my strength is gone and there's nothing I can do
You've brought me to this place
Now I am broken before You

CHORUS
