VERSE 1

In my distress I called to you my Lord
Deliver me and keep me safe from harm
Woe to me that I should be surrounded by my enemy
I speak for peace, but they are for war

CHORUS

I'm looking to the hills, I'm lifting up my eyes
To the One who made the earth, to the One who rules the skies
From where does my help come, if it isn't from You?
The Lord is my keeper and I will not be moved

VERSE 2

You heard my cry, you heard my desperate plea!
You've kept me Lord and still my life You'll keep
My going out, my coming in, You hold me now, You held me then
From this time forth and forevermore

CHORUS

BRIDGE 2X

The Lord will not sleep, the Lord will not slumber
He is your God, there is no other
Through darkness he sees, in day he's your cover

CHORUS
